REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN BOTH A REAR-END COLLISION BETWEEN A VESTIBULED BRANCHES OF THE LEGISLATURE.

THE SENATE STANDS 11 TO 10-THE ASSEMBLY 41 TO 19-CONSEQUENCES OF THE MAG-NIFICENT UPRISING.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8 (Special).-The Democratic leaders of New-Jersey are stunned by the blow dealt them yesterday. At the State House to-day they all wore long faces and were the pictures of despair. The loss of the Legislature was entirely unexpected by them. Their villanous gerrymander of the Assembly districts several years ago was relied upon to retain control of both Senate and House. But yesterday independent Democrats joined hands with the Republicans to sweep the powers that be out of existence. Tired at last of the autocratic misrule of the bosses-McLaughlin and Davis in Hudson; Price, Connelly and Smith in Essex; Kelsey in Sussex, Pidcock in Hunterdon, Ross in Middlesex, Hurley in Mercer and Thompson in Camden-they rose in their might and flooded the boxes with Republican ballots. In every county in the State, in addition to the racetrack gambling laws, the people have had grievances against the Democratic party, and they made yesterday the time for retribution.

The gambling laws will be repealed, and in their place will be put laws of the most stringent nature against gambling. Thompson and Flynn will be in the Legislature, but they will be powerless. The terms of State Treasurer Gray and State Controller Heppenheimer expire next winter, and they will be turned out by Republicans chosen in their stead. The gerrymander act, which has bound the Republicans as in fetters of iron, will be wiped out, and the Assembly districts redrawn in a fair manner. The jury commissioner, the local option and the sunset election laws will all be reenacted. All the legislation under which burdensome commissions have been saddled on cities and towns is likely to be repealed, and the ballot reform law will be amended so as better to guard the ballot-box in the future. The next legislative session will be a long and busy one, and when it adjourns the stables will have been cleared. Senator McPherson can hardly hope for his re-election in 1895. The Senators elected yesterday have a vote on his successor, and before that time other counties now represented by Democrats will send Re-publicans to the State Senate. The next Leg-

TORCHLIGHT PARADE AT ASBURY PARK. BOTH FRIENDS AND OPPONENTS OF MR. BRAD-LEY IN LINE-THE ENTIRE FUSION TICKET ELECTED.

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 8 (Special).—The town is jubilant at the big victory of Founder Bradley ever the candiate of the racetrack ring, Senator Terhune. All day long the people have been arranging for to-night's big parade. Business men plergymen, bank presidents, lawyers and citizens in every walk of life have been walking the streets of the town all day long wearing roosters, badges and other emblems of the winning cause, and to-night fully 2,000 of the best people of the town are marching through the streets, in all sorts of fantastic dress and carrying brooms, torches, transparencies and flags, and accompanied by bands of music and nags, and accompanied by bands of music and drum corps. No such demonstration as that of to-night ever before took place in the shore district. People from neighboring towns are here in large numbers, and the streets are lined with residents and strangers. The whole town is li-luminated. Many of Mr. Bradley's bitterest political antagonists marched in to-night's parade, dad in deep mourning, in acknowledgment of defeat.

The election of the entire fusion ticket was con-sided to-night by Democratic leaders all over the county, although the candidate for County, liert, Peter Forman, squeezed in by an ex-remely small majority.

EXPRESS AND AN ACCOMMODATION

TRAIN AT CHICAGO. Chicago, Nov. 8 .- By a rear-end collision on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad this evening, at Seventy-first-st., five people were killed and ten injured. Passenger train No. 11, known as the limited vestibuled express, crashed into the rear end of a Blue Island accommodation, badly wrecking two coaches and the engine. The dead are as follows: W. C. Carpenter, Washington Heights; Mrs. Aubrey, Blue Island; Minnie Schaefer, Beverly Hills; Carrie Barnes, Washington Heights; William Bowman, Auburn Park.

The injured are D. M. Snow, Longwood, internal wood, left hand cut off and badly scalded ab face and head; W. F. Stoll, Blue Island, internal injuries; James Kinser, Washington Heights, badly scalded; W. E. Jamieson, South Englewood, body and face burned; N. Hinz, Walden, Ill., both legs cut off; Lottie Brigham, No. 7,528 Wright-st., Chicago, head and body scalded; Nicholas Woshts, left leg broken and badly scalded; Louis Scharp, Morgan Park, both arms cut off, J. W. Templeton, Morgan Park, both arms cut off, J. W. Templeton, Morgan Park, both arms cut off and body burned.

The trains started on time this evening. The accommodation stopped at Seventy-first-st, to receive and let off passengers. Close behind it was the limited express, bearing down on it at the rate of twenty miles an hour. A heavy fog had settled over the city early in the evening and it was almost impossible, trainmen said, to discern clearly signal lights. The engine of the express train ploughed its way into the rear coach of the accommodation, being forced between the two sides like a wedge. The car was picked up and carried forward, so great was the momentum, and was driven with terroir the force into the end of the second couch from the rear. The explosion of a lamp ignited the wave-work in the wreck and the fire soon began to spread at a lively rate. head and body scalded; Nicholas Woshts at a lively rate.

As soon as the flames burst forth they were seen by a dozen people who hastened to give an alarm. The fire was preceded by very little zmoke and before the first engine arrived, it had gained a lively headway. Several engines responded to the alarm, and the blaze was soon extinguished.

A CONSPIRATOR IN THE MINNEAPOLIS BANK ROBBERY RUN DOWN.

LOUIS FLOYD ARRESTED IN THIS CITY-HIS BROTHER AND THE CASHIER, WHO STOLE

$20,000, HAVE FLED ON THE SPREE-A WILD CHASE OVER THE COUN-

TRY BY THE POLICE.

A long chase after three reckless young men whom two had squandered a fortune and the third had stolen $90,000 from a bank in Minneapolis, ende in this city yesterday, when one of the spenthrifts was caught on a steamship at a North River pier, and it was learned that his brother and the thief were crossing the ocean on another steam-ship. Louis Floyd, the prisoner, who is in a cell at Police Headquarters, is twenty-five years o' His brother, Frank, is two years younger, A few years are the two plunged madly into dissipation, soon spending the $9,000 left them by their father and squandering their mother's portion, about $39,000 In the course of their wild career they formed the friendship of Philip M. Scheig, twenty-eight years old, cashier of the Bank of Minneapolis. Scheig had been employed in the bank from the time of his boyhood, and he was trusted implicitly by the trustees of the bank. Their confidence in him was not shaken two years ago when he was charge with killing with a billiard cue Frederick Scholtz, a barkeeper in his uncle's liquor store, at Wainstell, Minn. Scheig denied all knowledge of the crime and escaped conviction.

In September the Floyd Brothers and Schelg trip. The Floyds went to St. Louis and bought a camping outfit, dogs, arms and other things. On the night of October I Scheig stole $90,000 and some diamond jeweiry from the bank's safe and fled to St. Louis. It was not long before the police connected the Floyd brothers with the crims.

TRACKING THE FUGITIVES.

Five days later B. M. Smith, the chief of police of Minneapolis, sent a dispatch to Inspector Me-Laughlin, of this city, stating that the mother of the Floyd boys was on her way to New-York, and was expected to see a broker named Clark, at No. 37 New-st. Detectives shadowed the woman in this city. She stayed nearly a week at the sons. Then she went back to Minneapolis, where she was arrested. She said she only knew that ner sons had gone to Kentucky by way of Chicago intending to spend several months hunting and ishing in the South.

Detectives Hoy and Lawrence and Richard T. Kirby Detectives Hoy and Lawrence and Richard T. Kirby, the president of the bank, immediately started after the fugitives, and they traced them from pince to place to Oakdale, Tenn.; Atlanta, Ga.; and Charleston, S. C. Scheig and his two comrades had travelled from Charleston to Jersey City in a special car, taking along their horse "Old Zeke," two foxhounds, two English setters and most of their camping traps. Mr. Kirby and the detectives followed post-haste to this city, arriving yester-lay morning, several days behind the fugitives. Inspector McLaughiln's detectives learned that on November 1 Scheig and the Floyd brothers had salled under assumed names from Brooklyn on the steamship Wordsworth, of the Lamport and Holt Line, bound for Rio Janeiro, Brazil. It so happened that in the lower bay the steamship broke one of her propellorbiades and put back to Twenty-ninth-st, and the North River, where she still is.

ONE EROTHER IS ARRESTED.

There the detectives arrested Louis Floyd. They also secured the baggage. On Monday Scheig and Frank Floyd had left the vessel. Scheig had seen paragraph in a Western newspaper, setting forth that the police had traced his movements, and he was afraid to remain on the vessel longer. He has the greater portion of the $0,000 in a belt about his was alram the greater portion of the $0.00 in a belt about his waist. It was agreed that he and Frank Floyd should take passage for Southampton on the steamship Spree, and go to Brazil from Europe, while Louis Floyd should take the baggage to Rio Janeiro if possible and meet his comrades there. Louis Floyd had on his person forty-nine English sovereigns and $50 in gold, a watch, a diamond ring and other jeweiry. The detectives removed from the vessel a horse, wagon, four dogs, several trunks and boxes of clothing, seven repeating rifles, two revolvers, thousands of cartridges, a collection of lishing tackle, a barometer, a telescope, a photographic outfit, a medicine chest, playing cards, poker chips several musical instruments, several cases of choice wines and liquors, false wigs and beards, 19,000 cigarettes and many boxes of cigars.

Louis Floyd said that his brother and Scheig had sailed on the Spree on Tuesday morning, and his sailed on the Spree on Tuesday morning, and his statement was verified. He will be detained in this city until requisition papers arrive form Minnesota. Frank Floyd and Scheig will be arrested when the Spree arrives in Southampton. The prisoner at the Central office said last evening that he and his companions had a joily time in the South and spent considerable money there. To increase their accuracy in shooting they bought 1,000 clay pigeons and shot them on the wing. They also shot apples from each other's heads. In their camping trip they used up several horses.

A RALTIMORE SUGAR REFINER KILLED. Philadelphia, Nov. &-William De Ford, aged forty years, president of the Baltimore Sugar Reforty years, president of the Baitimore Sugar Re-finery, fell from a fourth-story window of the Or-thopedic Hospital, in this city, on Monday afternoon, and died two hours later. The body was taken to Baitimore last night, where Mr. De Ford lived, at No. 25 East Mount Vernon Place. Mr. De Ford came to the hospital Thursday for treatment for a her-vous disorder, and the first announcement of his death was made this afternoon by Coroner Ash-bridge. No inquest was held. Charles M. Howard, of Baltimore, a brother-in-law of the dead man, denies that he committed suicide.

TIRED OF BOSS RULE.

RESULTS OF REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN THIS STATE.

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE WILL DO-GOVERNOR FLOWER'S INACTION ON ELECTION DAY-OPPORTUNITIES FOR INQUIRIES BY COMMITTEES - TALK ABOUT RE-

ORGANIZATION IN THIS COUNTY. The result of the great Republican victory in this State, giving the Republicans the entire State ticket, both branches of the Legislature and the Constitutional Convention, together with the defeat of Boody in Brooklyn, was the cause for thanksgiving on all sides yesterday, This result indicated that the people were tired of the rule of Murphy, Hill, Sheehan, Croker and McLaughlin, the unholy "combine" which disposed of, for value received, legislative and other favors in the interest of their own pocketbooks. The defeat of this hand is one of the greatest victories which the people of the State ever achieved. The Republican majority in both branches of the Legislature means that an effort will be made to repeal all of the vicious measures which were passed by the last Legislature. Measures will be introduced giving to the two political parties in this city equal representation in the appointment of election officials; making more stringent the registration law; amending the rapid transit law, and amending other laws which were passed by the orders of the State Democratic machine leaders. If the Republicans have their way, there will be an end to the partisan police force of Buffalo and to the fraudulent elections in Albany, in Troy and Lansingburg, and there is talk even of impeaching the man who hid himself from public view until after the polls closed, so that he could not interfere in the interest of good overnment, honesty and decency, in reply to SLIPPERY FUGITIVE CAUGHT the appeals of many citizens of Kings

THE GOVERNOR'S INACTION. A Governor who has shown that he was the pliant tool of men of the calibre of Sheehan, Hill and Murphy will hide himself at a time when his action is required to preserve the dignity of the law. Roswell P. Flower made the mistake of his life on Tuesday when he hid himself so that telegrams could not reach him until late in the day. All honest men of Brooklyn were anxious that he should send troops to Gravesend to see that right and justice prevailed after the Sheriff of Kings County had refused to do his duty. The Governor's private secretary, who is really the Governor, may have had something to do with hiding the Governor away from the telegraph messengers. Among other things which will be done by the Republicans will be the appointment of a committee to consider the criminal Tammany Hall schemes to vote repeaters and men fraudulently registered in this city. Another thing which will be done, no doubt, will be the appointmen of a committee, either of the Senate or the Assembly, or a joint committee of both houses, to investigate the naturalization frauds in this city. There is an ample field for such an investigation. A measure will be presented, as the outcome of the frauds in the Hd and Hld Assembly Districts, to compel voters to describe their personality more fully than they now do. Registration is simply for identification. It has been shown that "heelers" vote in the names legitimate voters, and to prevent this some more definite description of the voter is necessary. If

TALK OF REORGANIZATION.

There was much talk in this city yesterday of a reorganization of the Republican county organization. This is due to the fact that in some districts the returns showed that the Republican andidates must have been sacrificed for some eause or other. There was no apparent excusfor the defeat of Mr. Cowie in the IXth Assembly District. There is an Impression that it would not have come about but for disloyalty.

The election of the Tammany Hall candidate in the VIIth Assembly District was another victory for Tammany Hall which ought not to have been allowed. Three candidates for the victory for Tammany Hall which sught hot to have been allowed. Three candidates for the Assembly ran in this district. Otto Kempner, the able and honest anti-Tammany man, could not get a Republican indorsement, owing to the machinations of ex-Alderman Rothman, who pretended that the Republicans would not accept Kempner as their candidate. Kempner ran as an independent candidate, and came out second in the race. Of course the Tammany Hall candidate came out first, as Rothman and his followers expected him to do when they put up a Republican.

Several of the best Republicans in the district told a Tribune reporter yesterday that if the Republicans had supported Mr. Kempner he would have been elected by 3,000 plurality. Republicans throughout the city are displeased with the manner in which some of the districts were managed this fall. They now are asking for a reorganization, and, if their wishes prevail, there will be new leaders in a number of districts. Jacob M. Patterson, the chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee, is the leader of the Republican organization of the Viith Assembly District. His candidate for the Assembly, Charles Schwick, polled about 2,000 votes, and was the last man in the race in that district.

The magnificent Republican victories won on Tuesday grow in magnitude with later returns. New-York buries Maynard and elects Bartlett to the Court of Appeals by a plurality of more than 100,000, elects the whole Republican State ticket by pluralities exceeding 30,000, sends a Republican majority of 22 to the Assembly and of 6 to the Senate, and gives secure control of the Constitutional Convention to the Republicans. Kings County recorded an astonishing Republican victory. Schleren defeated Boody for Mayor by a plurality of more than 30,000, and Gaynor was elected Supreme Court Judge by about the same vote. The Mc-Laughlin ring is utterly smashed.

The New-Jersey racetrack gamblers' ring was routed. The Legislature is Republican by one vote in the Senate and at least twenty votes in the Assembly.

Governor McKinley was re-elected in Ohio by a plurality of colossal proportions, which grows steadily and may reach from 80,000 to 90,000. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican in both branches. Pennsylvania elected a Treasurer and Supreme Court Judge by a plurality believed to xceed 120,000. Massachusetts triumphantly elected the whole Republican State ticket-Greenhalge for Governor by a plurality of 30,000, and Wolcott, Lieutenant-Governor, by 3,000 more. The Legislature is strongly Republican, and Republican gains throughout the State were enormous.

Although later returns make changes in minor details, the general situation in New-York State is almost the same as yesterday. Palmer, for Secretary of State, has about 30,000 plurality, and his associates on the ticket for xecutive offices receive about the same. Maynard runs behind the other Democratic andidates about 33,990 in New-York County, 17,000 in Kings, 5,000 in Queens, 2,000 in Erie, 1,700 in Westchester, 1,500 in Rensselaer, 1,000 in Rockland, and nearly or quite 15,000 more in the rest of the State. GOVERNOR FLOWER ON THE RESULT. HE ATTRIBUTES THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY TO THE BUSINESS DEPRESSION.

Albany, Nov. 8 (Special).-The atmosphere has been rather blue about the State Capitol all day. Governor Flower remained in the Executive Chamber with Senator David B. Hill until nearly sunrise this morning, and together they kept the wires busy sending instructions to Democratic workers in all parts of the State.

The Governor returned to his office toward midday, but departed homeward early in the after-noon to get some much-needed rest. He would not see reporters, but prepared a statement which he gave to the press associations. It read as fol-"The returns show a large falling off in the Democratic vote in most of the industrial centres of the State, and this must be attributed to busi-

the large Democratic losses in other States. Whether justly or not, business depression and in-Whether justly or not, business depression and industrial discontent almost always affect adversely the party in power."

All day long Colonel T. S. Williams, the Governor's secretary, was busy receiving and tabulating election returns. The Governor refusing to talk, Colonel Williams was asked whether Mr. Flower conceded the loss of the Legislature. Colonel Williams replied that the Democrats had elected only fifty-seven Assemblymen and twelve Senators that they were sure of, and there were four Senatorial districts still in doubt. There was also a chance, he thought, of some of the men on the Democratic State ticket pulling through, he believing that Palmer ran ahead of his ticket. He had not, up to 6 o'clock, received returns from more than half the counties on the State ticket. Attorney-General Rosendale said that he was mostly interested in his own vote, If, however, Palmer had carried the State by over 20,000, he did not hope to pull through. State Treasurer Danforth would say nothing. He thought this was the time for the Republicans to talk.

Captain Palmer stated that he was not surprised at the result. He had made a tour of the State, and had seen to it that there were workers for the ticket in every place. Secretary of State Rice and other State officers will return to Olbany tomorrow.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD ATTEMPTED IN SYRA-CUSE.

Syracuse, Nov. 8 (Special).-Untrustworthy election returns last night indicated the election of Meagher (Dem.) in the 1st Assembly District by 17 plurality. All the official returns in that district were filed with the County Clerk by 4 p. m. to-day, except one district in the Fifteenth p. m. to-day, except one district in the Fifteenth Ward. Meagher's home. The return blank for that district had been made out and purposely held back. The figures were early given out and Republicans and Democrats agreed they were correct. These figures, with the official returns, made the vote in the district a tie. At 5 o'clock, just be-

JUSTICE DONE.

WILLIAM ZIEGLER OFFERS TO BACK MR. GAYNOS TO THE EXTENT OF $100,000 OR MORE, TO PROSECUTE THE LAW-DEFIER-THE BOSS'S

ELECTION INSPECTORS SURRENDER THEMSELVES AND ARE AD.

MITTED TO BAIL.

Indignation at the outrageous acts of John T. McKane at Gravesend is growing in intensity, and on all sides there is a determination to make him pay the penalty for his defiance of decency and law. Various persons and committees have begun movements to punish him already. Action, however, must be taken quickly, as it is reported that he intends to leave Gravesend to-day. It was said last evening that Police Justice Newton, who, next to McKane, took the most prominent part in leading the mob in its attack on peaceable citizens and in defying the orders of the Supreme Court, had finally induced McKane to go on a hunting expedition to Virginia. When the proposal was first made, a few days ago, McKane declined to go. But the general indignation at his conduct and the fear of the courts, it was said, had aroused his interest in the hunting fields of Virginia. In the memery of his most devoted minions about Gravesend McKane never went hunting before. It was said that the two men would go first to Hampton Roads. The start may be made this morning, unless steps are taken to prevent it. INTERESTED IN KINGS COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Although William Ziegler has removed from Brooklyn to New-York, he still retains an ardent interest in the affairs of Kings County, and is always ready to give his support freely to movements for honest government and for the punishment of criminals. Mr. Ziegler, with Mr. Gaynor as counsel, undertook the opposition to the celebrated water supply frauds in Brooklyn, and bore the expense of the legal proceedings, which resulted in the complete defeat of the corrupt Ring schemes to saddle the city with an extravagant and dishonest outlay for certain water works which were owned by members of the Ring, and which it was intended to sell to the city of Brooklyn at an utterly unreasonable price. This was one of the serious scandals of Mayor Chapin's administration. Mr. Ziegler is a personal friend and warm admirer of Mr. Gaynor. His indignation has been aroused by the insolent and infamous defiance of law and order of which "Boss" McKane has been guilty in Gravesend. Mr. Ziegler is anxious, in the public interest, that the scoundrels who have proved themselves to be so desperate criminals shall be properly punished. He has announced, therefore, that he will back Mr. Gaynor to the extent of $100,000 or more for the punishment of the Gravesend scoundrels. Mr. Gaynor was called upon at his home, No.

212 St. John's Place, Brooklyn, by a Tribune reporter last evening. He said he had not heard that Mr. Ziegler had offered to put up $100,000 to defray the expenses of prose-McKane. He had spent thousands of dollars himself in carrying on the campaign against the Ring, but had received no assurance from any one that he would be reimbursed. So far as he was concerned, he did not intend to let the matter rest. He had been occupied at his office all day shaking hands with citizens who had called to congratulate him on his election, and had had no time to think of anything else. He was tired and worn out after a most arduous den He would institute proceedings against McKane and his aids and abettors, to punish them for their flagrant and outrageous action. He could not say precisely when the proceedings would begin, but he anticipated that they were likely to be begun to-day.

INSPECTORS SURRENDER THEMSELVES.

The seven inspectors of election in Gravesend for whom Judge Cullen issued warrants on Saturday, on the charge of refusing to permit copies of the registry lists to be made, appeared before Judge Cullen yesterday and surrendered themselves. Their names are Cropsey, Crandall, Bader, Stubenbord, Ryan, Brownhill and Cohen. On the advice of counsel they waived examination, and were released on bail to appear for examination.

A return to the writ issued on Monday compelling Nicholas Johnson, another inspector, to have the list in his possession put at the disposal of Mr. Gaynor and his agents was made yesterday, to the effect that the writ had been complied with.

John A. McNamara, the clerk in Mr. Gaynor's office who was arrested on Saturday morning and sent to Raymond Street Jail, will begin a suit against Supervisor John Y. McKane, Justice of the Peace Sutherland, of the town of Gravesend, to recover $25,000 as damages for false im-E. M. Grout said yesterday that he was too much worn out by the work of Election Day to much worn out by the work of Election Day to take any action in the Gravesend matter.

John Y. McKane brazenly defended his outrageous action on Tuesday. He declared that Colonel Bacon did not serve him with the injunction, and so he did not defy the Supreme Court. If he had been served he would simply have turned his duties as Chief of Police over to a deputy. As Chief of Police he had simply protected the town's interests, and under the same conditions and circumstances he would repeat just what he had done in this instance. He had no fear as to the results of his action from Mr. Gaynor or any other man.

DENOUNCED BY E. R. KENENDY. DENOUNCED BY E. R. KENNEDY.

Elijah R. Kennedy, who has taken a leading part in insisting on the rights of Mr. Gaynor's agents in Gravesend, was seen at the Down Town Club by a Tribune reporter yesterday, In speaking of the Gravesend outrage he said: "If the crimes of McKane are not promptly and vigorously dealt with, it will practically amount to placing the stamp of public approvaan his actions. For this reason a committee has been appointed from citizens, without regard to their political affiliations, to prosecute the charges against McKane and his underlings to their proper end. It is not a committee in the interests of Mr. Gaynor, but a committee in the interests of good and honest government. The matter has been left largely in my hands, and we shall hold a meeting this evening to take the first steps in prosecuting McKane and his lawless followers."

This committee met last night in the Hamilton Club. Some of the men present were Edward M. Shepard, F. W. Hinrichs, William G. Low, James McMahon, John O'Connell, William H. Nichols, Thomas G. Shearman and A. Au-gustus Healy, Democrats; ex-Judge George G. Reynolds, James McKeen, Andrew D. Baird, Charles A. Moore, Willis L. Ogden, Henry K. Sheldon, R. W. Raymond and Elijah R. Kennedy, Republicans. An executive session was held, and it was decided to appoint a committee with power to confer with the Committee of One Hundred, and take whatever action they leem necessary to prosecute the lawbreakers in Surrogate Rastus S. Ransom, in speaking of McKane's actions at Gravesend, said yesterday: "A judge cannot ordinarily express his opinions freely, but I will say that the course pursued at Gravesend on Election Day by John Y. McKane was the most high-handed defiance of law that I have ever known. You cannot
